TEAM SUITS AND EQUIPMENT

TEAM SUITS (Required for all swimmers participating in meets!)

If you have a new swimmers, you are not required to purchase a team suit right now. However, if you sign them up for a meet, other than our intra-squad meets, they must have team suit for those competitions.

Nike is a team sponsor and all of our team suits are Nike swim suits as listed below. You can choose any one of these suits for your swimmer. These are meets suits and it is recommended that your swimmer only wear this suit for meets. Swimmers can use any suit for practices. It is recommended that swimmer have a one piece competition type suit for practices.

The Nike color block suit is the same suit as last year. If you have any team suit from earlier years (previous team suits to the Nike color block suit) you must purchase the color block suit (or one of the other options) at this time. All swimmers are required to wear one of these suits for swim meets. The only exception is for our very young swimmers. If the below suits are too large for your very young swimmer they are allowed to purchase a solid black nike suit instead. This is our team uniform and it is important that swimmer have one of these suits for meets.

Nike Team Color Block Suit (Red/Black)

Female Youth	$40.50
Male Youth	$28.75
Female Adult	$41.95
Male Adult	$29.95

Other Team Suit options:

Nike Hydra (Red/Black)
Female Neck to Knee (no zipper)	$135.25

As of right now these are the only suits that swimmers will be allowed to wear at meets. We are still waiting to hear if the Blue Seventy suits will be allowed at all this fall, and the final date that those suits will be allowed. The information is changing weekly and we will keep you updated as we receive new information. Our coaches are recommending on waiting to purchase an end of the season racing suit at this time, but will require swimmers to have one of the above suits for meets this fall.

All-American Aquatics is also a team sponsor and carries all team suits and equipment that your swimmer will need for practices and meets. Their phone number is 800-910-7946 and they are located in Oconomowoc.
